(didn’t work.) I work in the automotive repair industry so smokers are all around me all the time.

That would have given a constitutional fig-leaf to his departure.

We figured out what positive stimulants fulfilled his sensory needs and which ones triggered the negative.

No written documents from pre-Roman Celtic lands, the genesis or evolution of the Celtic mother-goddess.

The facility staff should make every reasonable effort to accommodate the resident’s preferences.

They are abused because of their euphoric, sedating, and numbing effects.
